TWA / TWAPAC Announces Selections for March 4 Party Primaries

The Texas Wildlife Association and the Texas Wildlife Association Political Action Committee (TWAPAC) have announced support for candidates seeking federal and state offices in the March 4, 2014, Primary Election.

The Texas Wildlife Association considers statements of support for candidates of federal office, while the TWAPAC considers financial support and/or statements of support for candidates of state office.

The Texas Wildlife Association (TWA) is a statewide wildlife and conservation organization of nearly 6,500 landowners, land managers, hunters and wildlife conservationists who own and control almost 40 million acres of private land in Texas. TWA serves Texas wildlife and its habitat, while protecting property rights, hunting heritage, and the conservation efforts of those who value and steward wildlife resources.
